

4 October 2021

Dear Member

Call for nominations to the ACSA WA Divisional Council

Nominations are hereby called for seven (7) positions available on the ACSA WA Divisional Council:

- 4 x 3 year terms ending 2024
 - Stephanie Buckland, who has advised that she will not be re-nominating
 - Dr Ricki Smith, end of term
 - Mark Gummer, end of term
 - Joanne Wilkinson, end of term
- 2 x casual vacancies – 2 year term ending 2023
 - Ian Carter, who had announced his retirement
 - Elizabeth Hogarth, who has advised that she will not be re-nominating
- 1 x casual vacancy – 1 year term ending 2022
 - Olive Wright, who has announced her retirement

Nominations will open on Monday 4 October.

The newly elected ACSA WA Divisional Councillors will play an essential role engaging with local members and implementing the Divisional plan that includes the delivery of local services to members in line with the ACSA Strategic Directions 2020 - 2025.

Voting will be conducted at the General Meeting via ballot.

Attached is the ACSA 'Divisional Council Nomination Form' which should be completed and returned to angelique.mcavoy@acsa.asn.au by COB 5pm Monday 18 October 2021.

Yours sincerely,

TREVOR LOVELLE
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR WA
Aged & Community Services Australia